Navan, Ireland

Front-End Developer

Convert multiple design mock-ups into fully functional templates for an online store. Responsible for the design and development of WordPress sites, and daily website maintenance.

(Jun 2011 – Feb 2014)

The DG Group / Snap
Dunshaughlin, Ireland

Web Developer

My primary task was to convert Photoshop mock-ups into fully functional websites. To prototype faster and save time, I built an in-house CSS framework and starter WordPress theme. I made old websites mobile-friendly, implemented responsive techniques, and tested for browser compatibility. Support clients by email.
